Stop That Squeak

A Brake Squeak is more than a nuisance,

It's A Warning!

Nobody likes to have the cop dash up and bawl out, "Back up, you," simply because you have gone a few feet beyond the traffic line. It probably isn't your fault at all, simply the fault of your brakes.

And for that, there is a definite remedy. Let us test your brakes, for everything that may be wrong-adjustment, scored drums, worn out lining. Whatever the trouble, our mechanics, skilled in brake work, can instantly suggest a remedy.

Drive into our station today.

Let us help keep the cop off your running board.

Temporary Fences Save Time, Labor and Money

THEY cut labor costs by letting the stock do I much of the harvesting. They turn into money much forage so often allowed to go to waste, enable you to rotate stock and hogs over different fields and maintain fertility. Live stock as well as hogs salvage much grain left in the field.

For instance—dividing either permanent or temporary pastures, hogging off part of your corn, turning in on legume crops—all these practices are profitable and all can be followed through using a few stretches of temporary fence here and there on the farm.

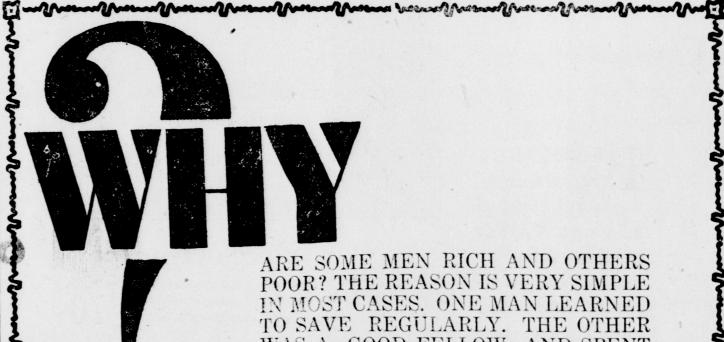

Temporary fences can be quickly erected on Red Top Steel Posts. With a Red Top Driver these drive easily through hardest soil at the rate of 200 to 300 a day. And after using them for temporary fences they can be withdrawn and used in your permanent fence line-makes your fence post dollar do double

William Haines Stars in "Speedway" At Uptown Theatre

"Speedway" presenting William Haines in a new role in the field of sport, and a very thrilling one, auto racing, is the coming attraction at the Uptown Theater the week of September 20.

This new sound synchronized picture was filmed at the Indianapolis races, and the thrills of the great American speed classic, Keech's sensational victory, and all the other details of the huge affair, form a thundering and dramatic background into which is woven a charming love story and a drama of sacrifice.

Ernest Torrence appears as a veteran driver, hero of sixteen years of major racing, and Karl Dane is seen in comedy relief as WANTED-Girl for general office the mechanic "Steve." Eugenic Besserer and Polly Moran and others of note are in the cast. Many of the famous drivers in the big race appear in action in the pic

Lou Kosloff and his orchestra take their admirers on a musical, non-sensical divertisement of happiness and joy next week, starting Friday, September 20, called "Roof Garden Reveis."

Does Politeness Require Falsehood?

All polite people are constant, accomplished enemies of truth, according to Ruth Chatterton, the well-known stage star, who is making a name for herself in talking moving pictures with her roles in "The Doctor's Secret,' "The Dummy" and "Charming Sinners." She ascribes this endless prevarication to the prevention of needless hurts and evasion of lengthy explana-

By way of illustration, Miss Chatterton points out that the "white lies' contained in the dialog of her most recent all-talking picture, W. Somerset Maugham's "Charming Sinners," number 113. Each lie, however, is justified and s a true reflection of real-life circumstances, she says.

"These and similiar lies are vital to civilization's complexities. In critical matters, honesty is the best policy' but what would we do in everyday affairs if we really told the truth every time our opinions are solicited?"

Robert Milton, famous stage pro ducer and director, directed Miss Chatterton in the all-talking picture, "Charming Sinners," which will show at the Pickwick theatre, Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 23 and

Month Old Baby Plays Big Screen Role with Blue

If it be true, as many contend, that it's all in the start, there is one tiny baby in Hollywood who has already laid the foundation for a most exciting life.

PLAN HIGHWAY PATROLS FOR STATE POLICE

Better Protection and Enforcement of Rules Provided

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 18—Complete reorganization of the Illinois Highway Police force will be effected in the next few days, Harry the Albert Buthmann family on H. Cleaveland, director of the Department of Public Works and Buildings, announced today. Two hundred and forty-five men of the 300 allowed by the last General Assembly will be assigned to patrol duty with orders to enforce without fear or favor the regulations regarding traffic on the paved roads

Practically complete plans call for 112 patrols operating out of nine district centers. These centers are the same as the district offices of the highway department. District Number 1 with headquarters at Elgin, includes Cook
